

Current Health: Conditions

Presented below is a list of known medical conditions that may cause Tinnitus, in some patients.

Scroll down through the list and place a check to the left of every condition that applies to you by clicking on it. Please ask your healthcare provider to help you choose the conditions that you may have.

When you are finished, click Next.

- Acoustic neuroma
- Altitude sickness
- Anemia
- Aneurysm
- Aortic regurgitation
- Arterial angioma
- Arteriosclerosis
- Aural polyps
- Benign Paroxysmal Positional Vertigo (BPPV)
- Caffeine
- Cardiac lesions
- Carotico-cavernous fistula
- Cervical spondylosis
- Cogan syndrome
- Congenital intracranial aneurysm
- Costen syndrome
- Ear infection
- Ear wax
- Eustachian tube dysfunction
- Fabry's Disease

< Back

Next >